The First Annual Carrboro Film Festival

The newly formed Carrboro Film Festival Committee, a subcommittee of the Carrboro Art Committee along with other film-focused individuals including 4 local filmmakers, is pleased to announce that planning for the First Annual Carrboro Film Festival has begun. This festival is a celebration of the film and video creativity we have right here in Orange County, and a competition for up and coming filmmakers.

Any filmmaker, from beginner to well established professional, is welcome to submit a production, 30 minutes in length or less. It can be old or new. As long as it's an original production, it can be submitted. We offer three categories: student, college, and emerging. The competition is open to anyone who lives, works, studies or plays in Orange County. A blue ribbon panel made up of local area experts in the film industry will select the award winners.

The festival is scheduled for Sunday, November 19, 2006, from 2 - 7pm in Century Hall at the Century Center. There will be an additional showing of the award winners, including a "people's choice" award chosen by the Film Festival attendees, at the ArtsCenter a couple of weeks later.

We've already begun lining up sponsors and foresee this initial event being primarily funded by grants and private donations. We've applied for a grant from the Orange County Arts Commission and are planning to do the same with other granting institutions, such as Strowd Roses. The idea for and organization of the Film Festival came too close to the end of the budget process in order for us to make an official request for money from the Town in this year's budget. However, we've been advised that if we're seeking money from outside agencies it's important for the Town to support the festival financially in some way. We see the Town's primary commitment to be providing the Century Center as a venue and support from the Recreation and Parks staff the day of the event, but also hope there may be some discretionary money in the budget to help with the matching funds requirements set by some grants. We do anticipate income in film submission fees and ticket and t-shirt sales, but also do plan to make these affordable for all.

The ArtsCenter and Shared Visions Foundation have already committed to sponsoring, as well as UniqueOrn Enterprises, Beery Media, Community Realty, Carr Mill Mall, the Clay Centre, Open Eye Café, Orange County Social Club and Debbie Meyer and Eric Brantley. We offer a four level sponsorship opportunity beginning at $25, making it affordable for even the smallest business or individual contributor.

The Carrboro Art Committee currently manages two galleries, in the lobby of the Century Center and here at Town Hall, was the impetus for the Carrboro Music Festival, is an active partner in the Community Art Project, acted as fiscal agent for the Carrboro Poetry Festival, and is dedicated to making Carrboro a destination for the arts, while providing opportunities for artistic expression to a growing number of community members. The Carrboro Film Festival is the next logical step in achieving these goals.

The Carrboro Film Festival Committee is Nic Beery (chair), Maggi Grace, Jackie Helvey, Ron Liberti, Jim McQuaid, Debbie Meyer, Joy Preslar, Tori Ralston, Casey Robertson, Steve Stewart, Todd Tinkham, and Jon Wilner.
