APPLICANT(S) RECOMMENDED AT THIS TIME
(ONE PER OPEN SEAT)

Applicant 1: Lydia Lavelle

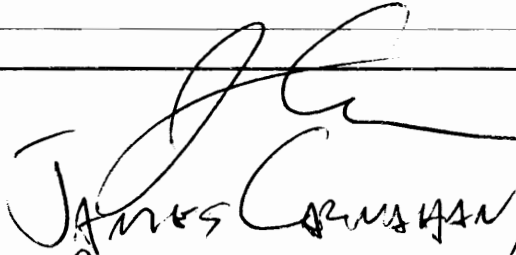

Outstanding qualifications:

Lydia served 10 years on Durham's Recreation Advisory Board & Open Space and Trails Commission. Earlier this year she made a very nearly successful application for the vacant Board of Alderman seat. She is an Attorney and currently working as Assistant Dean of Student Services, NCCU School of Law.

How applicant compliments current board composition: The Planning Board will be well served by both Lydia's legal background and her Parks & Recreation activism in Durham. We do not currently have an attorney on the Board; I believe we will greatly benefit from Lydia's expertise.

One of my goals is to have diverse representation on the PB that represents all of Carrboro geographically. Lately, our membership has tended to come mostly from "old" Carrboro, from the town's central area. As a resident from the newly-annexed part of Carrboro, Lydia's appointment will help provide more balanced representation on the Planning Board.

Other comments:

James Crumpton, Chairman
Planning Board

APPLICANT(S) RECOMMENDED AT THIS TIME
(ONE PER OPEN SEAT)

Applicant 1: Matthew Barton

Outstanding qualifications:

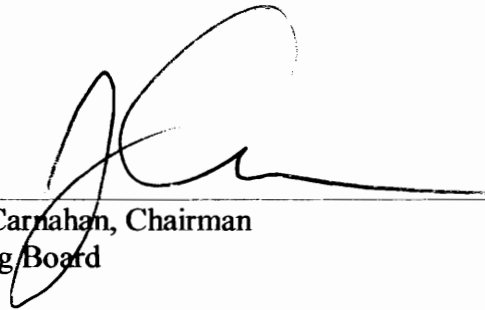

Matthew Barton has demonstrated considerable interest in community planning issues and willingness to work in the public arena to achieve his goals. He understands and supports principles of walkability and the importance of compact urban form.

How applicant compliments current board composition: Having played a leadership role in a citizen effort to develop a walkable alternative plan for the new elementary school, I believe Matthew's knowledge and dedication will enhance the Planning Board's ability to assess development proposals & ordinance changes as they are considered.

One of my goals is to have diverse representation on the PB that represents all of Carrboro geographically. Lately, our membership has tended to come mostly from "old" Carrboro, from the town's central area. As a resident of the Wexford neighborhood in the northwestern part of Carrboro, Matthew's appointment will help provide more geographically balanced representation on the Planning Board.

Signed:

James Carnahan, Chairman
Planning Board
