

A RESOLUTION ADOPTING A CODE OF ETHICS FOR THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN OF THE TOWN OF CARRBORO
Resolution No. 06/2010-11

WHEREAS, the Constitution of North Carolina, Article I, Section 35, provides that a "frequent recurrence to fundamental principles is absolutely necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty"; and

WHEREAS, a spirit of honesty and forthrightness is reflected in North Carolina's state motto, Esse quam videri, "To be rather than to seem"; and

WHEREAS, G.S. § 160A-86 requires local governing boards to adopt a code of ethics; and

WHEREAS, as public officials, the members of the Board of Aldermen are charged with upholding the trust of the citizens of the Town of Carrboro and with obeying the law;

NOW THEREFORE, in recognition of the obligations assumed by Board Members as public officials representing the citizens of the Town of Carrboro, and acting pursuant to the requirements of G.S. § 160A-86, THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN OF THE TOWN CARRBORO RESOLVES:

Section 1. The attached Code of Ethics for the Town of Carrboro Board of Aldermen is hereby adopted. The Code of Ethics is not adopted as an ordinance, but for ease of reference, it shall be included as Appendix B to Chapter 2 of the Carrboro Town Code.

Section 2. All provisions of any town ordinance or resolution in conflict with this ordinance are repealed.

Section 3. This resolution shall become effective upon adoption.

CODE OF ETHICS FOR THE TOWN OF CARRBORO BOARD OF ALDERMEN

Section 1. Purpose.

The purpose of this Code of Ethics is to establish guidelines for ethical standards of conduct for the Board of Aldermen (the "Board") and to help determine what conduct is appropriate in particular cases. It should not be considered a substitute for the law or for a Board member's best judgment.

Section 2. General Principles Underlying the Code of Ethics.

(A) The stability and proper operation of democratic representative government depend upon public confidence in the integrity of the government and upon responsible exercise of the trust conferred by the people upon their elected officials.

(B) Governmental decisions and policy must be made and implemented through proper channels and processes of the governmental structure.

(C) Board members must be able to act in a manner that maintains their integrity and independence, yet is responsive to the interests and needs of those they represent.

(D) Board members must always remain aware that at various times they play different roles:

(1) As advocates, who strive to advance the legitimate needs of their citizens;

(2) As legislators, who balance the public interest and private rights in considering and enacting decisions, ordinances, and resolutions; and

(3) As decision-makers, who arrive at fair and impartial quasi-judicial and administrative determinations.

(E) Board members must know how to distinguish among these roles, to determine when each role is appropriate, and to act accordingly.

(F) Board members must be aware of their obligation to conform their behavior to standards of ethical conduct that warrant the trust of their constituents. Each official must find within his or her own conscience the touchstone by which to determine what conduct is appropriate.

Section 3. Obey the Law.

Board members should obey all laws applicable to their official actions as members of the Board. Board members should be guided by the spirit as well as the letter of the law in whatever they do.

Section 4. Act with Civility.

Board members should feel free to assert policy positions and opinions without fear of reprisal from fellow Board members or citizens. To declare that a Board member is behaving unethically because one disagrees with that Board member on a question of policy (and not because of the Board member's behavior) is unfair, dishonest, irresponsible, and itself unethical.

Section 5. Maintain Integrity and Independence.

Board members should act with integrity and independence from improper influence as they exercise the duties of their office. Characteristics and behaviors consistent with this standard include the following:

- (A) Adhering firmly to a code of sound values;
- (B) Behaving consistently and with respect toward everyone with whom they interact;
- (C) Exhibiting trustworthiness;
- (D) Living as if they are on duty as elected officials regardless of where they are or what they doing;
- (E) Using their best independent judgment to pursue the common good as they see it, presenting their opinions to all in a reasonable, forthright, consistent manner;
- (F) Remaining incorruptible, self-governing, and unaffected by improper influence while at the same time being able to consider the opinions and ideas of others;
- (G) In a quasi-judicial matter, disclosing contacts and information about issues that they receive outside of public meetings to the extent required by law;
- (H) In a quasi-judicial matter, refraining from seeking or receiving information about the matter outside of the quasi-judicial proceeding itself to the extent required by law;
- (I) Treating other board members and the public with respect and honoring the opinions of others even when the Board members disagree with those opinions;
- (J) Not reaching conclusions on issues until all sides have been heard;
- (K) Showing respect for their office and not behaving in ways that reflect badly on those in office;

(L) Recognizing that they are part of a larger group and acting accordingly; and

(M) Recognizing that individual board members are not generally allowed to act on behalf of the Board but may only do so if the Board specifically authorizes it, and that the Board must take official action as a body.

Section 6. Avoid Impropriety.

(A) Board members should avoid impropriety in the exercise of their official duties. Their official actions should be above reproach. Although opinions may vary about what behavior is inappropriate, this Board will consider impropriety in terms of whether a reasonable person who is aware of all of the relevant facts and circumstances surrounding the Board member's action would conclude that the action was inappropriate.

(B) If a Board member believes that his or her actions, while legal and ethical, may be misunderstood, the member should seek the advice of the Board's attorney and should consider publicly disclosing the facts of the situation and the steps taken to resolve it (such as consulting with the attorney).

Section 7. Faithfully Perform the Duties of Office.

Board members should faithfully perform the duties of their office. They should act as especially responsible citizens whom others can trust and respect. They should set a good example for others in the community, keeping in mind that trust and respect must continually be earned. Board members should faithfully attend and prepare for meetings. They should carefully analyze all credible information properly submitted to them, and in quasi-judicial matters they should be mindful of the need not to engage in communications outside of meetings. They should demand full accountability from those over whom the Board has authority. Board members should be willing to bear their fair share of the Board's workload. To the extent appropriate, they should be willing to put the Board's interests ahead of their own.

Section 8. Conduct the Business of Government in an Open and Public Manner.

Board members should conduct the affairs of the Board in an open and public manner. They should comply with all applicable laws governing open meetings and public records, recognizing that doing so is an important way to be worthy of the public's trust. They should remember when they meet that they are conducting the public's business. They should also remember that local government records belong to the public and not to Board members or their employees. In order to ensure strict compliance with the laws concerning openness, Board members should make clear that an environment of transparency and candor is to be maintained at all times in the governmental unit. They should prohibit unjustified delay in fulfilling public records requests. They should take deliberate steps to make certain that any closed sessions held by the Board are lawfully conducted and that such sessions do not stray from the purposes for which they are called.
