(Board)

Candidate's Name: Seth LaJeunesse

Date of Application: 10/11/2011

Candidate Summary: Seth is the present TAB chairperson, and has been since February 2011. He's served on the advisory board for three years, all the while seeking to incorporate relevant transportation network and safety research into the practice of addressing Carrboro's persistent and emergent transportation issues. When devising plans and forwarding recommendations to the Board of Aldermen, Seth and his TAB colleagues always consider equity, accessibility, connectivity, and safety-related objectives, whether these recommendations involve implementing a "road diet" on W. Main St. or improving pedestrian safety along N. Greensboro St.

Seth continues to learn evidence-based approaches to improving transportation systems and finds gratification in applying such knowledge toward making Carrboro a more livable community.
